MAY 2023

Blooming flowers, graduations, fishing derbies, Memorial Day weekend. There is a lot to like about May. May this month bring you warm sunshine and happiness.

MONTHLY DINNER MEETING

TIME: Monday, May 8, 6:00 p.m.

PLACE: Bluffton Senior Center

WHAT: Our meal will be sponsored by Riley Creek Arbor. They will have Lee's Famous Chicken cater the meal. The meal is free but reservations are required by May 3.

MC: Pat Basinger

PROGRAM: Ron Epp and Kay Burkholder will lead us in a hymn sing.

In May, Jean King will turn 90 years young. We will celebrate Jean's Birthday at our monthly dinner meeting where Jean will receive her red rose and Life Membership. Congratulations Jean.

MEMORIAL DAY

The Bluffton Senior Center will be closed on Monday, May 29, in observance of Memorial Day.

TAI CHI

The Bluffton Senior Center will be hosting the Area Agency on Aging's Tai Chi class starting May 15 and running through July 13 on Mondays and Thursdays from 9:30 – 10:30. The 10-week class is free but registration is required. The class is limited to ten people. Tai Chi is an evidence-based group program that focuses on improving functional ability, such as balance and physical function, to reduce fall-related risks and frequency. The program utilizes Tai Chi's Sun style for its ability to improve relaxation, balance and its ease of use for older adults. The movements are taught to both left and right sides and with turns to move forward and backward to improve mobility and offer a variety of combinations. Please sign up in the office.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

Last spring, summer and fall, we had a wonderful group of volunteers who kept the Senior Center open on Saturdays from 10 to 1. This allowed people shopping at the farmers' market or Etc. Shop one more place to shop. We would like to do so again this year. If you would like to volunteer in the store on a Saturday, let Tonya or Deb know. We will train you on all you need to know.

DAN HODGES PRESENTS MOTHS

Dan Hodges, from the Johnny Appleseed Metro Parks, will be back at the Bluffton Senior Center on Wednesday, May 31 at 2:30 p.m. Dan will be talking about Moths, from those pesky insects that eat clothing to the beautiful ones that are mistaken for butterflies. Moths come in all shapes and colors and I am sure Dan will tell us why they are so important to the ecosystem. Dan is always entertaining so come and check it out.

TRANSPORTATION FOCUS GROUP

Join us at the Senior Center on Wednesday, May 31 at 10 a.m. for a discussion on the gaps in transportation opportunities. Stefanie Motter, Michelle Ramage and others from the Area Agency on Aging are conducting the focus groups to talk to individuals over the age of 60 or with disabilities about options and opportunities in transportation and to help cover any gaps that are found in the current systems. Please spread the word.

ATTENTION! NO MORE PILL BOTTLES TAKEN

Matthew 25 is no longer taking pill bottles. We will no longer be collecting them. The caps can still be donated to the Boy Scouts through the box in the kitchen, collected by Barb Paxson. Matthew 25 is still taking other medical supplies. If you have any questions, please call Tonya.

HOBBY CENTER

Beth Hoch's Ukrainian Eggs brought some international flare to our spring. She painted those eggs herself. I hope you got to see them. In May, Barb Deeds will share her Ohio Bicentennial collection. If you have a collection, hobby or art work that you would like to share, let Tonya know.

TOENAIL CLINIC

May 22 at 9:30 a.m. is our next toenail clinic with Dr. Kirk. Reservations are required and can be made by calling the Senior Center at 419-358-8971. The cost is $10 due at appointment time.

COMMUNITY MEALS

Ebenezer Mennonite Church will serve the community meal on May 4 at 6 p.m. and on May 18, Emmanuel United Church of Christ will serve at 6 p.m. Meals are free and open to the public. A good will offering will be taken to support the local food pantry.

ACTIVITIES

Bowling is done until September. It is warm and inviting outside but activities are still going on inside the Senior Center. Members are also always welcome to invite a guest to check out the activities in case they would like to join the Senior Center. The only activity that requires membership is exercise class. But membership does have privileges.
